

Alpha and Omega Weddings

Description:

Although the wedding ceremony is the spiritual heart and soul of your wedding day, many people are uncertain how to choose a minister or officiant. You might even be a little intimidated when talking with the person who will be saying some of the most important words you will ever hear in your life. If you are entering an interfaith union, or if neither of you is affiliated with a religious group, you still need someone who understands your special desires on your wedding day.

As you plan your wedding, it's great to know that you have many options from which to choose. It's all up to you!

Choose the ceremony and style you want, then, find the elements you desire.

For example:

The Basic Wedding Package includes:

- A Private Ceremony
- Limited Remarks
- Exchange of Vows
- Exchange of Rings
- Kiss
- Pronouncement

The Simple Wedding Package adds:

- A Few Guests
- Giving away the Bride
- Further Remarks
- Introduction of the couple

The Classic Wedding Package adds:

- Full remarks
- Readings
- Personal Remarks
- Blessings or Prayers

The Unique Wedding Package adds:

- An original presentation with your situation in mind

Other Wedding Ceremony

possibilities include:

- Writing your own vows
- Lighting a unity candle
- Rose presentations
- Acknowledging the children in your home

Numerous presentations, readings, vows, prayers, etc. are available for you to choose; but your own thoughts and wishes are important and will be included in your ceremony.

Your officiant is Wayne Kindall, a retired, nondenominational minister who served churches in the South and Midwest. His background and experience as well as his warm and conversational presentation will be personal and meaningful during all aspects of your wedding ceremony.
